

10 Significant Incidents

- 1. Incidents involving prominent personalities, such as:
 - Elected and appointed national and local government officials down to barangay level;
 - Foreign nationals, diplomats (ambassadors, consuls, attachés, other embassy officials), tourists and “balikbayans”;
 - Religious leaders (priest, nuns, imams, pastors, etc.); and,
 - Other personalities whose involvement in incidents may result to controversies or publicity.
- 2. Incidents involving national security, such as:
 - Attacks on cities, towns, barangays and other populated areas;
 - Attacks or raids on military and police installations;
 - Raids, harassments and ambushes of military troops and police personnel;
 - Liquidations of government officials, military and police personnel;
 - Encounters with dissident terrorists, syndicates and organized crime groups;
 - Terrorist related incidents such as hijacking, hostage-taking, kidnapping, burning, etc.;
 - Bombing and explosions; and,
 - Mass Actions.
- 3. Jail breaks, escape of prisoners/detainees, and jail/prison riots;
- 4. Arson cases and structural fires affecting two (2) or more families or with an estimated damage of PhP 50,000.00 or more;
- 5. Heinous crimes (murder, homicide, rape, drug or kidnapping cases) involving prominent personalities; arrest/neutralization of wanted persons; rescue of kidnap or abduction victim/s; and recovery of contrabands;
- 6. Robbery, hold-up, hijacking, carjacking, etc. perpetrated by syndicated crime groups;
- 7. Election-related violent incidents (ERVIs);
- 8. Natural disasters/calamities and its related activities (such as evacuation, search and rescue, relief operation, etc.); Man-made disasters (such as stampede, collisions, commotions, etc.);
- 9. Surrender of wanted persons, those included in the OB watchlist and members of threat groups; the surrender, recovery, confiscation and apprehension of illegal firearms; and the accounting of loose firearms; and
- 10. Land, water or air mishaps.

Serbisyong May Pagkukusa

Pulis! Ako! ... Pulis! Niyo! Po!

Philippine National Police
National Operations Center

WORKING 24/7